

ERNEST PEPPLES
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL
BROWN & WILLIAMSON TOBACCO CORPORATION

Mr. Pepples was born in Louisville, Kentucky. He received an AB degree from Yale University in 1957 and an LLB degree from the University of Virginia in 1963. He served as an officer in the U.S. Regular Army (1957-60). Before joining B&W he was a partner in the law firm of Wyatt, Grafton & Sloss and also served as President of the Health & Welfare Council Board of Directors for Jefferson County, Kentucky from 1971-1972. Mr. Pepples was appointed General Counsel of Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation and was elected Vice President and a member of the corporate Board of Directors in 1975. In August, 1980, Mr. Pepples was elected a Senior Vice President. He and his wife, the former Martha Norman, have three children. Mr. Pepples is a Trustee of the University of Kentucky Tobacco and Health Research Board, a Director and Member of the Executive Committee of The Tobacco Institute, a Director of the Council for Tobacco Research-U.S.A., Inc., a Director of Tobacco Merchants Association of the U.S., a member of the American Bar Association and a member of Kentucky and Louisville Bar Associations.

Date: March 12, 1984

521016766